

PORT ARTHUR
GARRISON DEFY
RAIN OF SHELLS

Reports of Japanese Assaults on Beleaguered City Tell of Terrible Bombardment, Which Makes Record for First Firing of Big Guns.

RUSSIAN MINES SAID TO HAVE KILLED MANY JAPS.

Believe That Attacks on City and Outlying Forts Is Being Continued and the Japanese Are Steadily Gaining Ground.

Gen. Kuropatkin reports at quiet along his entire front yesterday and it is evident from the tone of today's dispatches that the two armies are not yet in close touch.
A dispatch from Mukden says the Japanese are moving forward with extreme slowness. Chetoo says that two hours of heavy fire-ing was heard by vessels passing off Port Arthur.

There is no confirmation of the dispatch from St. Petersburg, published in the Paris Matin, saying that the Emperor had received private dispatches to the effect that a general assault on the pos-sion was in progress. Like the majority of reports originating in the European press, it is obviously an invention. It has been some months since Port Arthur was in communication with any outside point and the only news from the beleaguered fortress has come out way of Chetoo and Tokio. On its face the Matin story is incredible.

CHEFOO, Sept. 24.—(4:40 p. m.) The steamer Victoria, which arrived here this evening from New Chungking, passed two hours heavy firing at Port Arthur this morning, the firing being on the east side of the city. The steamer was twice stopped by Japanese warships, but was only briefly delayed.

A Japanese who arrived here from Dalney at noon today says that the battle which began at Port Arthur, Sept. 19, continued during Sept. 20, but he is unable to give any details of the fighting.

On Sept. 21 and Sept. 22 the Japanese bombardment was slight.

The Japanese further said that there were unverified rumors at Dalney to the effect that the Japanese had made some gains. The bombardment of Sept. 19 began at 3 o'clock in the morning and lasted one hour.

At dawn the volume of firing increased to an extent hitherto unknown.
Some of the heavy guns, which have lately been placed, opened fire from a quarter which previously had been silent.

During the fiercest firing the heavy guns were fired at an average of twice in one minute. Every window in Dalney, 130 miles distant, shook. The firing continued heavy during the night of Sept. 20. Thereafter it was inconsequential.

Chinese from a village near Port Arthur confirm the foregoing and add that while off the Mikoto islands yesterday they heard firing from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The Matin's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs as follows:

"Telegrams of which the general staff have as yet no knowledge reached the war office this morning. The communications are of the most serious nature, affirming that the Japanese are making gains, regarding which the greatest anxiety prevails at court."

"The Japanese are now engaged in a general assault, which is more furious than its predecessors, attacking the town on three sides simultaneously and employing their whole forces, being determined to break the siege."

"Russian mines blew up whole battalions." Gen. Fock especially distinguished himself, directing the fire from the wall, which the Japanese reached after indescribable massacre."

IDEAL SUNDAY IS PROMISED
Saturday Afternoon Thunderstorms Will Be Followed by Fair and Cooler Weather.

"The rain will not continue beyond tonight and St. Louis will have an ideal Sunday," was the reassuring news that came from the weather bureau Saturday when black clouds settled over the horizon and a heavy downpour ushered out rubber coats and umbrellas.

No wind of any consequence accompanied the rainfall and anything bordering on a severe thunderstorm is unlikely. Forecaster Bowie says.

The area of low pressure to the north is responsible for today's rain, which is general over the Mississippi valley.

As area of low pressure moves westward it will bring more rain to the Northwest.

DEMURRER IN JANZOW SUIT
IS OVERRULED

Special Commissioner Higginbotham Declares Charges of Unfitness and Dishonesty Against Bethlehem Pastor Furnish Grounds for Action.

SCURRILOUS LETTER IS INTRODUCED IN EVIDENCE

First Witness Admits Numerous Secret Meetings Were Held at Homes of Defendants at Which Church Troubles Were Discussed.

In overruling the demurrer filed by the defendants to the suit of the Rev. Charles L. Janzow, pastor of the Bethlehem Evangelical Church, who is suing 15 members of his congregation for $48,000, alleging defamation of character, Special Commissioner Henry Higginbotham declared today that the charges imputing unfitness to Pastor Janzow, a lawyer, a knave, a tradesman constitute grounds for legal redress.

The demurrer was filed Friday by Attorney Wehrenbrecht on behalf of the defense. It set forth that the petition of Pastor Janzow had failed to state a cause for action.

In disposing of the demurrer at the hearing in room 509, Railway Exchange building, Fourth and Chestnut streets, Commissioner Higginbotham said:

"To call a soldier a coward, a physician ignorant, a lawyer a knave, a tradesman dishonest or a bankrupt would most certainly be grounds for a damage suit.
"To accuse a minister of the gospel of profligacy, circulating anarchistic doctrine, with unfitness to teach, with not being of good moral character, with being a liar or dishonest is most certainly actionable.
"We will proceed with the taking of depositions."

Attorney Wehrenbrecht at once made objection, saying that should the case be declined against the defendants, he would carry it to higher courts.

The first witness called, Peter Branch of 828 North Eleventh street, testified that he first sharp tilt between opposing lawyers.

Interpreter
Not Granted

Branch apparently failed to understand the questions put to him by Attorney William F. Smith, who is representing Pastor Janzow.

Attorney Wehrenbrecht demanded an interpreter. He was temporarily overruled by Commissioner Higginbotham on a showing made by Attorney Smith that he had been in the United States twelve years and conversed with his family in English.

The following examination was then conducted:

"Have you ever attended any meetings in private homes where Pastor Janzow was discussed?"

"Yes, three or four."

"Where were they held?"

"Where you ever at meetings in August Rothel's home at 1322 Hebert street, when Bethlehem church affairs were discussed?"

"No, two or three of us would go there, but I don't call them meetings."

"No, you meet at any other homes?"

"No."

All Defendants
at Mueller's

"Whom did you meet at Mueller's house?"

"All of them," the witness waving his hand toward the other 14 defendants who were seated in a group along the south wall of the room in which the depositions were being taken.

"How did you happen to go to Mueller's?"

"I went there to overcome troubles in the church. We wanted peace."

"How long did these meetings last?"

"The witness failed to recollect after the first meeting, who did the talking and what was said except that 'peace' was desired."

LOSES HIS VOTE

Former Lieutenant-Governor Disqualified in Coming Election Because He Bet on the Outcome.

WAGERED $500 FOLK WILL WIN

Now Mourns His Inability to Cast Ballot for His Friend Whose Enemies He Silenced.

Through his enthusiasm for Joseph W.
Folk, which he carried to the extent of taking bets amounting to $500 on Mr. Folk's election, John B. O'Meara, former lieutenant-governor of Missouri, stands deprived of his vote in the coming election.

When Mr. O'Meara presented himself for registration he was asked the usual questions, one of them being:

"Are you interested in any bet or wager on this election?"

"I was compelled to answer 'yes,'" said Mr. O'Meara, and I was informed that my name could not be registered and that I was ineligible to vote for Mr. Folk, for whom I have labored night and day; it was one of the bitterest disappointments I have suffered.

"After a consultation with an attorney, I found that while I could compel the judge to accept my name, I could not cast my ballot at the coming election, although my betting on this election would not prevent me from voting in the spring. If I could secure registration."

"Since I became of age I have never missed casting my ballot for the Democratic ticket, and now when I have the greatest desire to vote I am disqualified."

"After Mr. Folk's name was mentioned in connection with the governorship I was in company with some persons who were antagonistic to him. They were very bitter in their remarks and I made the bet to silence them. I took all the money that was offered and each of the five persons who were present bet $100. If they had offered to bet more I would have taken them."

"There, for the first time in my life, I failed to see a business proposition and I took the bet at even money when I should have obtained at least two to one. My idea in offering to bet was to silence their remarks, for when there was no more money forthcoming from them, the objectionable talk ceased."

"As it is, I shall win $500 and lose my vote, for which I would gladly pay the $500 five times over."

MARRIED FIRST WHEN SIXTEEN

Now Mourns Her Inability to Cast Ballot for Her Friend Whose Enemies He Silenced.

"I can't grant you a license because you are too young to marry," said the marriage license clerk at Belleville Saturday morning when Lena Long, aged 19 years, accompanied by Samuel Slaten, 35 years old, of Waco, Tex., applied for the document authorizing them to become man and wife.

The bride-to-be blushed.

"Why?" she said, timidly. "I was just divorced from my first husband an hour ago."
The clerk looked bewildered, but Miss Long reassured him by stating that the records of the circuit court would show her statement to be a fact.

The clerk investigated with the result that he learned the young woman had just been granted a decree of divorce from Charles Taylor, to whom she was married in 1901 at the age of 16.

Armed with these facts, the clerk promptly issued the desired license.

Mr. Slaten, the bridegroom, recently came to Belleville from Waco. His bride is a daughter of John B. Long of Belleville.

FOUNTAIN GUARD COMMANDANT

Col. Kingsbury Will Be Succeeded by Army Officer Who Is Francis' Choice.

It is expected that orders will be issued by the war department within the next few days returning to his post at Fort Sill Lieutenant-Colonel Henry F.
Kingsbury, colonel of the Jefferson Guards, and ordering Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel Barracks to assume the position of commandant. President Francis is said to have sent official notification to the war department that the Expedition management desired that Col. Kingsbury be succeeded by Col. Fountain.

There is said to have been friction between Col. Kingsbury and the Exposition officials. It is said the commandant resented orders to the guard issued from the offices of Exposition officials.

Col. Fountain enlisted in Company K, One Hundred and Fortieth Ohio Infantry near the close of the civil war, serving from May 2 to Sept. 3, 1864. In 1893 he was made lieutenant-colonel while serving in the adjutant-general's department in the Philippines as major. Upon being promoted he was transferred to Jefferson Barracks.

Dr. George W. Tarr, proprietor of a den-rants issued Saturday morning on application of Dr. E. P. Jamison of the state board of dentistry, with practicing dentary without a license.

Dr. Jamison, representing the state board, employed Miss A. S. Zelland, a pretty girl of 264 Flad avenue, who is the possessor of pearly teeth, to go to the Tarr parlor and have some work done.

The girl sat in the chair for four hours and had her teeth filed, for which she paid $4. It is said, and upon this evidence Dr.
Jamison asked for the warrant.

ACTING DEPUTY
ADMITS HE SHOT
BULLOCK IN FIGHT

Jack Hanson Says He Fired in Self-Defense When Attacked While Trying to Serve Warrant, but Did Not Know He Inflicted Serious Wound—Justice Campbell Knocked Down in the Melee.

WOUNDED MAN RUSHED TO THE HOSPITAL ON CAR

Sheriff Hencken, Who at First Refused Information of Tragedy to City Police, Reports Details After Twelve Hours in Response to Chief's Demand—Says Man Killed Was Wanted on Robbery Charge.

Jack Hanson of 1044 Sutter avenue, St. Louis, county jail keeper, admitted this afternoon that while acting as a special deputy sheriff last night he fired the shot which fatally wounded Harry D. Bullock, said to have been a "booster" for gambling establishments near Delmar Garden, who died early this morning at the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium.

The St. Louis County authorities, including Sheriff Hencken, who for 12 hours after the killing refused to give the details to the city police, hold Hanson blameless.
Hanson says that he was standing with Justice I. W. Campbell late last night in Morris's Grove, near Delmar Garden, when they were approached by a racehorse man known to them as Finn.

"There's a man around the garden who has threatened to kill me, and he just drew a gun on me," said Finn.

Bullock appeared a few minutes later, and Finn exclaimed: "That's the man." Hanson and Justice Campbell say that Hanson was immediately sworn in as a deputy sheriff by the justice, with instructions to arrest the man and search him for concealed weapons. Seizing the man, Hanson says he found a revolver in his hip pocket.

"He struck at me," said Hanson, "and I dodged. He then struck Campbell, knocking him down. Then he broke away and ran, both of us chasing him."

"Someone from the Illinois Hotel fired, wounding me in the hand."

"I fired two shots, and it must have been one of these which gave him his fatal wound. I did not think at the time that I had hit him, although he fell. I thought he had stumbled, for when I got to him he put up a fight for 10 minutes."

"I overpowered the man, took him to Mueller's saloon and then turned him over to Watchman Fred Bouquet and Constable George Bode. They took him to the sanitarium, and until they returned I did not know he was seriously wounded."

Justice Campbell told the same story as Hanson, but withheld it until an audience with representatives of the city police force at Delmar Garden, resulting from the arrest of Chief Kieley for information regarding the tragedy.

During the morning Hanson had made himself inaccessible at his home, Justice Campbell had refused to talk, saying the newspapers had printed enough about St.
Louis County officials and no other county official except Prosecuting Attorney Johnson had consented to make a statement regarding the affair. Mr. Johnson said that Hanson did the killing, and that he would institute prosecution if the latter were shown to have exceeded his authority as deputy sheriff.

Sheriff Hencken said this afternoon that he left the Delmar Garden neighborhood at 8 o'clock last night and did not return until after the shooting. He found Bullock's revolver and that of Hanson in care of Justice Campbell.

Deputy Sheriff Bellairs says that Bul-been suspected of aiding Matt Leslie, now guest, by the use of "knockout drops."

Bullock after being shot was carried into the saloon of P. J. Mueller at 670 Delmar boulevard, and when it was found that his injuries were critical he was taken over to the Epworth

THE RENTERS.

Said Jones to his wife: "Do you recall One moonlit night in May,
When we went strolling hand in hand,
Along beautiful King's highway,
When I told you, in the tenderest words,
Of my love for you again?"
"Oh, yes," said the madam, "we had two rooms
At Mrs. Johnson's then."

Said Jones to his wife: "Oh, wasn't it grand,
That night when under the trees
On the Meramec Highlands hills we sat And sighed in the soft June breeze?
I dreamed of love till I hardly knew For the time where I was at."
"Yes, I recall—we were living then In that old Olive street flat."

Said Jones to his wife: "I shall never forget,
Just for old remembrance' sake,
That beautiful night we rowed and sang On the bosom of Creve Coeur Lake.
Ah, wasn't it fine? Do you recall That time, do the gods akin?
"Oh, yes, I remember—that was the day That we put a 'want ad' in."
Said Jones to his wife: "Oh, wasn't it great,
That picture that never fades?
That night when we sailed on the broad lagoon
Neath the murmuring, bright Cascades?
Oh, wasn't it glorious—enough to inspire The soul of the dullest bard?"
"Yes—that was the day we decided to move To Delmar boulevard."

"The woman I love with my heart," he said,
"Is a cozy-cozy girl;
A sofa-pillowy, soft and willowy,

Dear little love of a girl."

"The woman I love with my brain," She's sheer delight to my mental sight,

With a wit as quick as an arrow's flight,
A comrade true, and a sweet-

And a never-wearying girl."

"The woman I love with my soul,"

"Is a Saint Cecilia girl;
The meanings fine of a love divine In her movements slow, in her glances shine.
Fairest of all she holds me in thrall,
She's a simply adorable girl."

"Then fare you well and forever," she said,
Her scarlet lip a-curl;
"To think that I—no matter, good-

"Ah, Love," he said, "'tis for you

THE NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

A Notable Book on Automobiling.

McClure-Phillips have added to the list of their fall publications a volume which will surely be eagerly welcomed by all devotees of the automobile. It bears the title "The Complete Motorist," and is by A. B. Fison Young, one of England's most noted automobile experts. The book is an account of the evolution and construction of the modern motor car, and gives a history of it from its very beginning in an awkward steam vehicle to its modern latest manifestation in the noiseless, mile-a-minute 80-horse-power machine.
The book is a sparkling, interesting and enthusiastic piece of history-writing; not a dry treatise on mechanics; a piece of literature imbued with the spirit and speed and exhilaration of automobilism. It contains a chapter contributed by Rudyard Kipling, and one by the author of "The Lightning Conductor" on "The Open Road." It is a practical book on the selection, use and maintenance of the motor carriage and the mechanical facts concerning its engine and its maintenance.

Suggestion.

In the October issue of Suggestion (Chicago), a magazine of the new psychology for thinkers, will be found articles relating to rational hygiene, psychic research, suggestive therapeutics, personal magnetism, the development of will power, mental science, advanced thought and kindred subjects. The prominent idea advanced by the editors of Suggestion is that health, happiness and success may be secured by the proper exercise of natural inherent powers, within the reach of all. The principal articles and departments in the October issue are: "A Corner for Thinkers," "Physical Bankruptcy," "Do It Now," poem: "The Vaccination Cure," "The Mind a Traveler," "How to Prepare the Mind for Success," "The 'Miracle' Grotto of Lourdes," "Giant Strides of Modern Science," "Personal Magnetism," "New Psychology of Shakespeare," editorials, queries, common sense philosophy, psychic research, nature cure, etc.

Twenty Miles a Second.

Prof. Simon Newcomb writes illuminatingly about "The Extent of the Universe" in Harper's Magazine for October.
He reminds us of the great advance in astronomical measurements since the beginning of the nineteenth century and of the many stars whose speed has been determined by means of the spectroscope.
The general average speed of individual stars has been computed as about 20 miles per second. So far the motion of several hundreds of stars has been measured, and from these the general speed has been deduced.

As Life Is and May Be.

One of the most interesting new writers on scientific subjects is Mr. C. W. Saleeby, an Englishman whose articles in Harper's Magazine, the London Academy and other periodicals have attracted wide and favorable notice. A book from his pen will be published on Sept. 22 by the Harpers, under the title "The Cycle of Life." Mr.
Saleeby has a lucid, virile style, and he possesses the power to bring home to his readers a realization of man's life and the wonders of the universe. Among the chapter headings are: "The Verdict of Science Upon Alcohol," "Japan and Christianity," "Suggestion and Hypnotism," "The Evidence for Telepathy," "Marriage, Multiplication and Morals," "Some Urgent Points in Pedagogy," "Is Man Alone?" etc.

What Happened the Seventh Day.
By Verrill Mighels, author of "Bravado," tells this story about a week.

the boy became tired and was inclined to talk rather than play. He began to ask questions about the origin of things generally, with that incisive penetration that belongs only to the youthful mind. His deputy, Next day was telling his mother, with much satisfaction, about his newly acquired knowledge. "God made everything," he said. "He made the sun and the earth and all the stars, and the trees and the flowers, and dogs and cats and ponies, and everything, six days, and got arrested the seventh day."

The Industrious Shakers.

There are 17 "communities" of Shakers in as many different parts of the United States, and only therein; there being no branches of the society in any other country, and that at Mount Lebanon being the ruling head of all. This sect has been first in the invention and use of many useful articles and processes, such as the drying of fruits and vegetables for market, preparing and vending seeds in the present envelope form, the botanical medical practice in this country, vending dried and prepared roots and herbs for medicinal purposes, the manufacture of medicinal herb extracts for market, manufacture of broom-corn into brooms, the first buzzsaw and first machine for matching and planing flooring and ceiling timber, cut nails, metal pens and the first machine for the cutting and bending of machine card teeth and punching the leather for same.—From "The Shakers of Mount Lebanon," by William Wait, in Four-Track News for October.

Oliver Cromwell.

Goldwin Smith, whose authoritative papers upon historical subjects are now too rarely seen, has, in the September Atlantic, under the title of "The Great Puritan," a notable study of Oliver Cromwell. Taking into consideration all of the ample literature which has recently been published about Cromwell, the author constructs what is perhaps the most convincing and satisfactory portrait of the man and the leader that has been seen. It is in every way an important and interesting paper, which every serious reader will wish to read and re-read.

A Novel by the Author of "Emmy Lou."

The thousands of readers who were enslaved by George Madden Martin's winsome little heroine, "Emmy Lou," will, of course, be actively interested in the author's forthcoming book, "The House of Fulfillment." Mrs. Martin, withstanding the seductions of a sequel to her great success, has written a real novel dealing with southern life and the antagonizing elements in northern and southern nature.
She begins, however, with her heroine, Alexina Blair, as a child about Emmy Lou's age. The book is a true romance, and there are in it a number of love stories of various kinds. The underlying motive of the book is the author's belief that love is after all life's essential, and that nothing else really matters.

More Uncle Remus Stories.

Joel Chandler Harris has finished a new series of Uncle Remus stories and verses upon which he had been working. They will appear in one of the monthly magazines and will be published by McClure-Phillips in 1905.

JAPANESE COMMANDMENTS.

It was Prince Shotoku who in the eighth century organized the administrative system of Japan and laid down those rules which are still called "The Constitution." From their nature the word "commandments" would be to western ears more appropriate. In part the ancient writing runs:

"Concord and harmony are priceless; obedience to established principles is the first duty of man. That the upper classes should be in unity among themselves and intimate with the lower, and that all matters in dispute should be submitted to arbitration—that is the way to place society on a basis of strict justice.

"Imperial edicts must be respected. The sovereign is to be regarded as the heaven, his subjects as the earth; * * * so the sovereign shows the way, the subject follows it.

"Courtesy must be the rule of conduct for all ministers and officials of the government. Social order and due distinction between the classes can only be preserved by strict conformity with etiquette.

"To punish the evil and reward the good is humanity's best law. A good deed should never be left unrewarded or an evil unrebucked.

"To be just one must have faith. Every affair demands a certain measure of faith on the part of those who deal with it.
Every question, whatever its nature or tendency, requires for its settlement an exercise of faith and authority.

"Anger should be curbed and wrath cast away. The faults of another should not cause our resentment.

"To chide a fault does not prevent its repetition, nor can the censor himself be secure from error. The sure road to success is that trodden by the people in unison.

"Those in authority should never harbor bitterness or jealousy of one another. Hate begets hate and jealousy is blind.

"The imperative duty of man in his capacity of a subject is to sacrifice his private interest to the public good. Egotism forbids co-operation, and without co-operation there cannot be any great achievement."

The Come-Back.

"The difference between woman and a glass," said the funny fellow, "is that the glass reflects without speaking, while a woman speaks without reflecting."
"And the difference between you and a glass," said the sharp girl, "is that the glass is polished."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

proof" safe.
Dealer: Well?
Victim: Well, this morning I found it cracked open and rifled of all its contents.
Dealer: What more do you want? Isn't that proof that burglars have been at it?

Egan Puled Down Lead in Next Nine, but Could Not Quite Tie His Opponent.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. GLEN ECHO COUNTRY CLUB, St. Louis County, Sept. 24.—Lyon defeated Egan for the first 18 holes by the score of 1 up.

GLEN ECHO COUNTRY CLUB, ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—Despite the heavy down-pour of rain the final match of the Olympic championship golf tournament between Howard Chandler Egan of Chicago, the national champion, and George S. Lyon, the Canadian champion, began at 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning on the Glen Echo golf links. A gallery of 100 golf enthusiasts followed the champions in their play through the wet fields.

At 12:30 the golfers had played nine holes, where the score was 2 up in Lyons' favor. Lyons' excellent putting gave him a lead of 4 holes at the end of the ninth. His putting on the tenth, eleventh and twelfth cups was very weak, and in consequence he halved the first two and lost the third, fourth and fifth holes, and the fourteenth and fifteenth went to Egan. A tie was made for the sixteenth. The Chicago man took the seventeenth by the score of 4 to 6. The players tied for the eighteenth by the score of 5 to 4, which gave Lyon the 18 by 1 up.

NELSON AGREES TO FIGHT TOM MOWATT

Says He Is Willing to Box Twenty Rounds Before St. Louis Club—Match May Be Arranged.

"Battling" Nelson has at last come down off his perch and consented to make a match with Tom Mowatt. In an interview in Chicago last night the "Battler" said that he had no objections to boxing Mowatt 20 rounds before one of the St. Louis clubs, but that under no circumstances would he consent to meet Mowatt in a six-round bout.

Mowatt says he will fight Nelson any old number of rounds. Paddy Carroll, Mowatt's manager, is in the city and the match will probably be booked here before Carroll returns to Chicago.

Armed With Revolver in Hallway of Stock Exchange Building They Surrendered Cash.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Compelling clerks to go into a room at the point of a revolver to be made prisoners, a masked man took a suit case containing $100 and records belonging to the Central Grain and Stock Exchange at 12 Leidesdorff street, and then made his escape.

J. Flynn and H. T. Parny are clerks employed by the exchange, and they were carrying the suit case containing the gold, silver and paper into the office through a passage way in the rear of the office when they were confronted by the robber. His revolver caused them to obey his command.

It is customary for these clerks to carry the suit case to the safe deposit vault of the Union Trust Co. Market street, where they are kept every night and in the morning. Before the gold, silver and paper is cleaned out by the janitor, it was through a door left open by the robber that he entered. At the way down the hall there. On arriving at the designated point the clerks were instructed to drop the suit case and go into an open room.

The clerks were tied in the room and the robber took the suit case and departed.

FEDERAL EMPLOYEES MUST SEND CHECK

Kentucky Republicans, by "Special Arrangement" Are Defying Rules and Orders of Civil Service.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Proof that the old game of collecting campaign funds from federal office-holders is going on, regardless of the law and Civil Service Commissioner Black's drastic order, was furnished yesterday by Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic national committee and editor of Gray papers at Owensboro and Paducah, in Kentucky.

Secretary Woodson made public a letter sent broadcast by the Republican committee of his state, which declared that by special arrangement with the national committee, the state committee was to be allowed to retain all it collected from the federal employees within the state.

The letter was signed by G. V. Long, chairman of the finance committee of the Republican state committee of Kentucky.
 It is said that a similar arrangement was made by the letter public said it was a direct violation of the law. The letter said:
 "By special arrangement the national committee permits this committee to receive and retain all contributions which friends of the Republican party in Kentucky may wish to make. The list of contributors, with the amounts they have forwarded to Mr. Cortelyou, to be filed with the records of the national committee."

"The position you hold in the party shows your active interest in its principles and your desire for its success. We therefore confidently expect aid from you and hope to receive a liberal contribution for the expenses of our organization. We trust your contribution will be a valuable one.
 "The arrogant trusts which began to exercise a depressing influence on legitimate business during Mr. Cleveland's administration and whose unlawful encroachments have been checked by the strong hand of President Roosevelt, now seeking that Mr.
 Cleveland's faction of the Democratic party be in control, and knowing their friendly interest, have joined forces with them in an effort to punish President Roosevelt."

FOLLOWED DEFEATED TRAINER TO DEATH

Peculiar Coincidence Is Recalled by the Death of Hardy Durham, Owner of Dekaber.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Hardy B. Durham, a well known horse-owner and trainer, has dropped dead at Sheepshead Bay racetrack. He had just stabled his famous horse, Dekaber, after watching the animals at work on the track.
 A strange coincidence was connected with the horseman's sudden ending. Last Saturday at Brighton track Dekaber won a race, beating Ostich in a close finish.
 When the latter animal was led back to the stable at Sheepshead, the foreman, Gus Hannan, asked the stable boy if he had won.
 Learning that the horse, upon which he had wagered a large sum, had been beaten by Dekaber, Hannan threw up his arms and fell dead.

HER ERRAND FOR GRANDMA FATAL

Parents of Little Gladys Brunn Will Take Her Body Home to Kansas

The parents of Gladys Brunn, 8 years old, who was killed by a street car at Jefferson avenue and Potomac street Friday afternoon, reached St. Louis from Manhattan, Kan., Saturday, and will take the body of their daughter home for burial.
 The little girl was killed while on the first errand she was permitted to do since she came to St. Louis to visit her grandmother, Mrs. Bernadine Brunn of 338 Ohio avenue, and see the World's Fair.
 All during her stay she had sought permission to go on errands for her grandmother, but, fearing some accident might befall her, Mrs. Brunn refused until Friday.
 Then, just before the little girl was ready to leave for her home, Mrs. Brunn told her she could go to a neighboring store and purchase some rolls and cakes for lunch.
 The child started quickly on her errand, but at Potomac street and Jefferson avenue she stopped to let a car pass. It went by and then, without noticing a car coming from the opposite direction, she started across the track.
 The second car struck her, killing her almost instantly. Patrolman John Durkin carried the body to the home of Mrs.
 Brunn, who was still packing her grand-daughter's trunk when she arrived.

 BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 24.—In speech at the opening of the Democratic campaign here, Capt. Richard P. Hobson
